High tides and green grass: an update and some odds and ends

Sum...sum...summertime

Jopie, painter of compassion

Jopie Huisman was a painter, scrap trader and rag merchant. His images of cherished, worn out and discarded objects are well-known. Discover the Jopie Huisman Museum in Workum - entirely devoted to the life and works of the Frisian self-taught master painter from Workum. The museum receives 38,000 visitors every year! A great destination for young and old, and easy to reach from Heeg via a beautiful cycling route. On 4 June at 1:30 PM you can join a free tour of the museum. You only pay the entrance fee! More info: www.jopiehuismanmuseum.nl. Staff at our reception is always happy to help you.

The smell of wool

We received another tip from our guests. We love it when you share your suggestions with us! These tourists visited the Van Buren tannery, a family business established in 1861. Generations raised around the smell of wool. This truly is the only tannery where the entire tanning process is executed from start to finish, and where visitors are welcome. And you can buy sheepskins here as well! Another destination to be included in our guide with secret hotspots. You will find the tannery on the Workumertredreef 5 in Bolsward. Opening hours are Monday to Friday 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM and Saturday 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM. Tours are possible if you call in advance: 0515-572461.

June 24th - last day of the asparagus season!

And asparagus are the favourite vegetable of Jacob and Karin. The Dutch asparagus season only lasts two months. The first asparagus appear in spring, in February or in early March. They are traditionally harvested from the second Thursday in April until 24 June... which happens to be Karin's birthday... Coincidence? Then the plant is left alone to have the opportunity to grow and boost its health for the next season. The green asparagus foliage above ground collects solar energy which is stored in the roots. Graasboerderij Deinum-Ensing sells homegrown asparagus'. Their farm is at Sondelerleane 5 in Sondel. Open every friday and saturday from 13:00 till 17:00 h. Otherwise please: 0514-603298

The sailing battle for the Sword of Grutte Pier.

The Battle for Heech (Slach om Heech) consists of two days of racing with traditional Frisian sailing barges, or skûtsjes. This race in the honour of Frisian rebel legend Grutte Pier will see almost 50 skûtsjes compete fiercely. It is a beautiful racing weekend at the start of the sailing season that should reveal who the contenders for the championship are. The Battle for Heech will be held for the 5th time this year, on 9 and 10 June, from 9:00 AM onwards. Location: Watersportcentrum (Water sports centre) Heeg.

Must Go!

Classic in green

All of Friesland will celebrate 2018. Leeuwarden will be 2018 Cultural Capital and there will be activities all over the province. We want to draw your attention to one of these: The Oranjewoud Festival XXL.

Do you enjoy gorgeous green gardens, leafy lanes and classical compositions? Then you must visit the Oranjewoud Festival. The 6th edition of this festival of classical music will be held in picturesque Oranjewoud from Thursday 1 May until Monday 5 June 2018. The line-up of 120 Dutch and international top musicians - sometimes presented in a small-scale, intimate setting - looks very promising. The Oranjewoud Festival is part of the programme of Leeuwarden-Fryslân 2018.

Comic!

ROLLETJES

Let me see...Done the lawn, checked electronics, cleared pruning trim...hmm...let me go check the watersuppl...
